

Privacy Policy

5th Colchester Scout Group takes the issue of privacy very seriously and is committed to protecting and respecting our users' privacy online. This Privacy Statement sets out our current data processing practices and should be read in conjunction with our General Data Protection Policy.

Information we collect

When you register a young person with 5th Colchester Scout Group, we ask for your name, email address and postcode. We also ask for some information relating to the young person including date of birth, allergies and disabilities.

Any personal information provided by you to 5th Colchester Scout Group through your registration will only be used for the following purposes by the Scout Group:

- Keeping & Updating online membership records;
- Contacting you in relation to group activities. We will not send you unnecessary or "spam" e-mail and the bcc field will always be used to protect your email address from other persons
- Creating a membership file in written registration form, the Scout Association Compass system and Online Scout Manager (OSM). Collecting and holding census data for The Scout Association, including ethnicity, age, disabilities and allergies.
- You can see our GDPR policy for more detailed information.

Who we share information with

Any personal information received from you will be retained by us and not sold transferred or otherwise disclosed to any third party, unless such disclosure is required by law or by the Scout Association for member record keeping.

Some of our web pages may use cookies and other tracking technologies. A "cookie" is a small text file that may be used for example to collect information about web site activity. Tracking technologies may record information such as Internet domain and host names; Internet protocol addresses; browser software and operating system types; dates and times that our site is being accessed. Our use of cookies and other tracking technologies allows us to improve our web site and your web experience. Cookies can be disabled in your web browser settings.

Your consent

By registering with 5th Colchester Scout Group, you consent to the terms and conditions herein and to the Scout Group's processing of your personal data for the purposes set out above. You should also read our General Data Protection Policy for further information. You can opt out of emails at anytime and any personal information is deleted/destroyed as soon as the young person leaves the Scout Group.

This privacy policy statement relates solely to the information provided by you on the registration form and through my.Scout online. This information includes your registration details, any additional information you choose to submit.

This privacy policy is not intended to, and does not, create any contractual or other legal rights.

For more information on how the Scout Association processes your data, please visit:
<http://scouts.org.uk/privacy-policy/>

The Data Protection act

You can obtain further information about data protection laws by visiting the Information Commissioner's website at http://ico.org.uk/for_organisations/data_protection.